Description

Beautiful. Grand. Elegant. One-of-a-kind. Enjoyable. These come to mind when you see 3921 Crocus Lane...custom built in 1993. With a beautiful patio/courtyard area to make into your personalized outdoor living space, enter into the marble-floored hallway that leads to the main floor living area a few steps down on your left, or to your dining area and Italian tiled galley kitchen on your right. Take a few minutes to sit in the grandeur of this living area; enjoy your secluded backyard view and bask in the light. When winter comes, the fireplace will just add to this pleasure. The master bedroom and bath are on the same level as the living area. At the top of the stairs you will find a family or library room, two bright bedrooms with balconies, and another room designed for visiting guests or your music room.
