Description

Charming Historic West Boulevard area home modern updates. The majority of this home has been updated over the last few years while keeping the historic integrity and design of the home. The main level features original hardwood floors, large living room, formal dining and modern kitchen with access to back yard and detached garage. The upper levels of the home offers three additional bedrooms and an additional modern bath. The third story attic area is finished and is currently being used as a 4th bedroom. The basement of the home has another large living area, full bath, laundry and storage. Conveniently located near downtown and Skyline Wilderness trails.
