Description

Listed by Jaima Knutson-Colson, RE/MAX Results. Architecturally distinctive and unlike anything else on the market, this remarkable mid-century inspired retreat offers timeless craftsmanship, privacy, and 3.67 acres just minutes from downtown Rapid City. From the moment you step inside, you'll discover architectural details rarely found in today's homes. Expansive great room is anchored by a stunning stacked stone fireplace, custom built-in cabinetry, and an extraordinary geometric wood ceiling featuring alternating directional woodgrain panels that create a dramatic coffered effect—an unforgettable centerpiece that defines the home's character. Designed for both entertaining and everyday living, the spacious living area offers multiple gathering spaces filled with warmth, natural light, and incredible views of the surrounding Black Hills landscape. Oversized custom windows transform every season into artwork, inviting frequent visits from deer, wild turkeys, and other wildlife while creating a true sanctuary just outside the city. The remodeled kitchen blends timeless craftsmanship with modern convenience, showcasing beautiful knotty alder cabinetry, updated countertops, and quality stainless steel appliances. The private primary suite above the garage features knotty pine walls, expansive windows, and a peaceful retreat unlike any other. Outside, the experience continues across 3.67 picturesque acres with mature trees, abundant wildlife, and multiple outbuildings that have served as winter refuge for animals from Bear Country USA—adding a unique story to this extraordinary property. Whether you’re searching for a mid-century modern home, Black Hills retreat, private acreage, Rapid City luxury property, or a one-of-a-kind home with architectural character, this residence offers an opportunity that’s increasingly rare. Rich natural materials, expansive living spaces, and an unbeatable location combine to create a home that’s as memorable as it is inviting.
