Description

Listed by Jaima Knutson-Colson, RE/MAX Results, 605-391-1000. Some homes fit your life today. This is the kind of home you won’t outgrow. Set on a large lot in one of Rapid City’s most sought-after neighborhoods, this spacious three-bedroom home offers the room, character, and flexibility buyers are searching for. Extra-large rooms provide plenty of space for everyday living, entertaining, working from home, and everything the future may bring. Large Pella windows fill the home with natural light while framing beautiful views and bringing the outdoors into every season. The walkout basement expands the living space and creates a warm, inviting retreat centered around a cozy wood-burning fireplace with a striking stone surround. Beautiful wood accents pair with the natural stone to create a delightful mix of textures and a timeless, welcoming aesthetic. Outside, the expansive lot offers room to relax, play, garden, entertain, or simply enjoy the scenery. With generous proportions, a desirable location, beautiful views, and memorable architectural details, this is more than a home for your next chapter—it’s a home that can grow with you for years to come.
