Description

Welcome Home to 7153 Marvel Mountain Ridge Rd., Sitting atop Marvel Mountain Subdivision this home offers unbelievable views in every direction. This home takes advantage of the views with large windows throughout home. The attention to detail in this home is unmatched- ornate wood front doors, vintage doors to pantry, kitchen was designed with a entertaining company in mind as it has all kinds of pull-outs and storage savers. The primary suite is one of a kind with a walk-in closet that is very large with built-inorganizers like you see in a magazine. The master bath offers his and her sinks, a custom tiled walk-in shower, a separate jetted tub in the upper bathroom, and many other little features that you will love. The garage is insanely large (46x26) and this home. It sits on 6+ acres. Marvel Mountain Estates Subdivision. Sellers have blue print drawings that they are willing to share, would also add it has another family room, 3 bedrooms, and has 2 full and 2 half bathrooms. This home has a pretty sweet mother-in-law suite or Rally rental. It also has a natural gas fireplace that work even in power outages. It has a very large pantry and many closets for storage and clothes. It also has a very nice storage shed on the southside of the home with a concrete patio. It has a 50 amp RV hookup and a generator hookup on the east side of garage also. Come and see this amazing property. It is a chance to own one of the best.
