Description

Listed By Kief Hansen with The Real Estate Group 605-484-3535. This move-in ready home is nestled in the scenic beauty of the Black Hills and bordered on two sides by USFS land, offering exceptional privacy on 2.2 acres in a quiet neighborhood. A true nature lover’s retreat, the property is filled with wildflowers, wildlife, and wild raspberries. Trail 244 begins at the corner of the property, providing direct access to breathtaking trails, including Slate Creek.The main level features two spacious bedrooms, a full bathroom with convenient in-closet laundry, and a thoughtfully designed kitchen with abundant cabinet space and excellent lighting. An open-concept living and dining area showcases a cozy wood-burning stove and opens to two inviting decks—perfect for enjoying the surrounding landscape. A large pantry or wine cellar is located at the base of the stairs.The lower level offers a generous third bedroom with a private bath and closet, creating flexible living options. Choose between two potential primary suites: the upstairs layout with a Jack-and-Jill bathroom, or the entire private lower-level retreat. Solid pine doors throughout add warmth and privacy.Comfort is enhanced with hydronic in-floor heating and electric cove heating options. Additional features include a two-car detached garage with carports on both sides, an 8x16 shed, productive greenhouses that extend the growing season, and a well-stocked woodshed. A generator panel is already installed, and fiber optic high-speed internet is available. No Chickens, and no AirBnB with this subdivision.
